

River bridge is destroyed. It had three spans, and was 142 feet long. The bridge over the North river cannot be used. It is damaged, though the full extent of the injury cannot be ascertained. The bridge over the Potomac River, six or seven miles this side of Spotsylvania, is said by railway officials to be in a very serious condition. The bridge over the Enoree River, just south of Spotsylvania, has been carried away. The bridge over the North river, near Spotsylvania, was washed away this morning, causing a loss which President Montgomery, of the company, says will aggregate a million dollars.

BODIES IN THE RIVER.
Twelve bodies were seen floating past the bridge over the North river, and two persons, names unknown, were drowned at the Potomac bridge. The hotel and Presbyterian Church at Paelet were also washed away. The river was flooded by the incessant rains and first mill No. 2 was carried away and a short time afterwards mill No. 2, while the third plant is in imminent danger, the river rising rapidly.

A big warehouse containing 1,000 bales of cotton and 1,000 bales of yarn also was destroyed and the goods carried down stream. It is estimated that altogether 1,500 bales of cotton and four thousand bales of yarn were destroyed. The Paelet mills, which are the largest plant in the South, belonging to the same company whose plant was destroyed at Gainesville, Ga., last week. They manufacture brown sheetings and drills. They operate 50,000 spindles, 2,500 looms and 600 cards. The capital is $700,000. J. H. Montgomery, of Spotsylvania, S. C., is president of the company.

A special to the Observer this afternoon, giving later details of the losses, says: "Paelet Mills Nos. 1 and 2 and part of 3, gone. The loss is $500,000. Twenty-five lives are lost. The big Clifton Mills at Converse, were completely obliterated."

A STARTLING REPORT.
A startling report has it that Lake Superior, in Western North Carolina, has broken through its retaining walls and has descended upon the plains below with great fury. This may affect the cotton mill industries of the Seneca River, in Pickens and Anderson counties.

DAMAGE SUMMED UP

Estimated that It Cannot Reach Less than $2,000,000.

(By Associated Press.)
SPARTANBURG, S. C., June 6.—So many wires are down and communication of all sorts is so thoroughly demoralized that it is impossible to form any definite calculation of the loss of life today's floodburst and the resultant floods. The mortality list may go to 150, but the more accurate estimate places it somewhere around forty or fifty.

The total property loss in the entire section laid waste by the storm is likely to aggregate $2,000,000. The loss at Paelet is placed at one million dollars, summarized as follows: Mills Nos. 1 and 2, demolished; 28,000 spindles a wreck; 3,500 bales of cotton, 500,000 worth of cloth goods in company's warehouses destroyed; mill, cotton gin, postoffice, shoe shop, blacksmith shop, tentacle office, livery stables and Presbyterian Church, all washed away.

At Clifton, the Converse mill with 15,000 spindles is half washed away. The Dexter mill, with 20,000 spindles is probably half ruined. All these mills belong to the Clifton Manufacturing Company.

More than 500 people are homeless, and 4,000 out of employment. Scattered everywhere are the remains of homes, churches, schools, and other buildings. There was no wind and no damage by lightning; only by water. This fell in veritable torrents, converting the surface of the earth into a sheer lake of swirling water. Rivers overflowed, their banks tumbled before them, and creeks became rivers and small rivulets coating torrents, wiping out everything in their course. Railroad bridges were torn from stone and iron piers, cotton bales crushed like straw before the flood and grist mills and innumerable smaller industries and cottages were washed away by the angry waters.

At a late hour to-night scores of people were clinging to the branches of trees at Clifton, and could not be reached. Unless help comes to them soon it is feared that many will fall into the water and drown.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR MEET HERE TUESDAY

Session of Supreme Lodge to Be Held at the Masonic Temple.

The annual meeting of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Honor, will begin in this city at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday next.

The headquarters of the convention will be the Jefferson Hotel. The meeting place will be the Masonic Temple. The Executive Committee began its session on Saturday. This committee is composed of Mr. D. S. Biggs, of Boston, the head of the order; Governor J. C. Shepherd, of Edgefield, S. C.; Judge Clark H. Johnson, of Providence, R. I.; and Judge L. A. Gratz, of Louisville, Ky.

The organization is one of the pioneers in fraternal beneficent associations. In a history of nearly thirty years it has paid to the widows and orphans of deceased members the almost inconceivable sum of eighty millions of dollars, and in addition to this has expended on occasions such as Galveston, Jacksonville, and Johnston disasters and yellow fever epidemics ten millions more. At the present time it is in splendid financial condition. As it is a representative body, elected by the various grand jurisdictions, it is composed of choice men from the different States. The attendance therefore is not large.

The officers of the order are as follows: Supreme Dictator, D. S. Biggs, Boston, Mass.; Supreme Vice-Dictator, Hon. J. C. Shepherd, Edgefield, S. C.; Supreme assistant Dictator, Clark H. Johnson, Providence, R. I.; Supreme Reporter, Hon. Noah M. Givan, St. Louis, Mo.; Supreme Treasurer, James W. Branch, St. Louis, Mo.; Supreme Chaplain, Rev. H. H. Hope, Petersburg, Va.; Supreme Secretary, Hon. John H. Hancock, Louisville, Ky.; Supreme Guardian, Christopher W. Bransville, Ind.; Supreme Sentinel, H. H. Collier, Memphis, Tenn.; Supreme Treasurer, Frank B. Stiger, Helena, Ark.; E. C. Wood, Newark, N. J.; L. E. Ledbetter, Cedarburg, Wis.; Supreme Dictator, Hon. L. A. THE LOCALS LOST AND THEN WON

Stand-off Between Richmond and Petersburg at Broad-Street Park Yesterday.

Muddy grounds tended to make the games slow yesterday, and threatening weather kept back the usual attendance, although, with the drizzle every now and then, the crowd reached about 800 in number, and there was a lot of good rooting for both teams, some Petersburg cranks being in the grandstand.

The first game was an easy one for Richmond, with Charters in the box. Richmond did not awaken to the situation until it was too late, and the absence of both McEvoy and Knowles was felt, the service of the pitcher and the pitcher being used in the field. The first game resulted as follows:

Richmond	Petersburg

SECOND GAME.
Richmond retained the same battery in the second game, but Hooker went in the box for Petersburg. He was mainly responsible for the loss of the game, but it must be said that Richmond played better all-around ball in the second game than in the first. The score stands as follows, having been called at the end of the eighth inning because of rain:

Richmond	Petersburg
Biggs, 3b.....4 1 2 1 1 1	Biggs, 3b.....4 1 2 1 1 1

McChesney Won as Honest Victory as Turf Has Recorded.

Smithers, gave Jockey Gray, the winner, the entire purse of $5,000. Smithers is believed to have won $40,000 in the future books.

HANNA OUT FOR HIMSELF

Says He Only Wants to Go Back to the Senate.

HE ENDORSES ROOSEVELT

Declares the Ohio Republicans Unequivocally Endorsed the Administration—President-Maker Chary of Expressing His Opinion.

(By Associated Press.)
NEWARK, N. J., June 6.—The News has the following interview with Senator Hanna from a staff correspondent sent to Cleveland for that purpose:
Senator Marcus A. Hanna, iron manufacturer and the maker of Presidents, today emphatically denied that he was a candidate for the Presidential nomination. He declared that Mr. Roosevelt would be the only candidate for the Republican nomination in 1904.

The Senator anticipated the interview and "I cannot make a political forecast now, and you must not ask me to." "But you can talk about our long period of great business prosperity." "Everybody knows about that. There is nothing to do or say about it, except to stay right where we are," said the Senator.

"Do you think, Senator, as many do, that this country has several very serious national problems to encounter during the next four years, such as, for instance, the trusts, in both capital and labor, the negro question and the Filipino charges?" "In regard to all these matters the Republican party stands on its record. That tells the whole story of past, present and future. There are no problems, except those that the democratic will endeavor to manufacture for us. They have been hunting for problems for a long time," said the Senator.
